If Tenant fails to bring the account current pursuant to the terms of the written notice, then Landlord may pursue all remedies available to it at law or equity. Tenant shall be responsible for costs incurred by Landlord, including attorneys' fees and disbursements, which shall be considered "additional rent".

6. Tenant, for itself, family and guests, certifies and agrees as follows:

A. Tenant's failure to cure a breach may result in termination of this Agreement, to be decided by the Board and within its sole discretion. Tenant shall be required to pay rent and abide by all other provisions of this Lease Agreement through the last day of possession.

 D. Tenant further covenants that all of the annual charges as specified in this Agreement and appended regulations will be well and faithfully paid and that in default thereof, Landlord may resort to any and all legal remedies requisite for repossession of said property.

K. Tenant shall obtain and pay for fire and liability insurance on the Premises described herein and shall provide Landlord with a current copy of a certificate of insurance. Failure to procure insurance and/or provide a certificate of insurance shall be deemed a default and grounds for terminating this Agreement. In the event Tenant fails to provide Landlord with proof of insurance within ten business days of Landlord's request for such proof, Landlord shall give Tenant thirty days written notice to cure the default. If Tenant fails to offer proof pursuant to the terms of the written notice, then Landlord may pursue all remedies available to it at law or equity. Any attorney's fees and costs incurred relative to enforcement of this provision shall be considered "additional rent".

L. Tenant hereby gives Landlord a right of first refusal on any sale of a building or mobile home located on the Premises. Landlord shall have thirty days from date of receipt of the terms of a bona fide purchase offer to match the offer. If Landlord fails to exercise said right, Tenant may proceed to sell pursuant to the terms of only that particular offer. Landlord shall give Tenant written notice of its intent to extend a new lease term at least ninety days prior to the termination of this Agreement. Landlord and Tenant shall then have thirty days from the date of Landlord's written notice to enter into a new written Lease Agreement. Landlord may, at its sole discretion, extend the date by which a new Lease Agreement may be signed. If no new Agreement is signed by Tenant by the applicable deadline, Tenant agrees that all of Tenant's property shall be removed from the premises on or before the termination date
